

It is an outrage that Sinclair Broadcasting is forcing their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary just before the election.

Public airways are used free of charge. I believe that Sinclair is obligated by law to serve the public interest. It's another example why media ownership rules need to be strengthened.

What is happening to democracy in this country? How is the FCC looking out for the good of our democratic system. I am deeply upset.

Sincerely, Carol Adamski